

SCRUBS, LINEN, WOOL & BARKLEY

DRY GOODS COMPANY.

GREAT STOCK-TAKING SALE THROUGHOUT JUNE

Preparing for 1st July Inventory, for Which Reason

THE LOWEST POINT IS NOW REACHED ON ALL SEASONABLE GOODS OF THE BETTER CLASS SINCE THE FIRST INTRODUCTION OF DRY GOODS

Every Department offering strong inducements to reduce stock. While there is no merit in selling common goods at low prices, there is a satisfaction in selling superior qualities as low as inferior grades are quoted, and is worth to us all the difference in profit. It will pay to investigate this statement every day this month as each day we are, while clearing our present stock, adding new purchases bought for cash, and in all instances at this season under value, thereby keeping an unbroken assortment and at all times offered AT THE LOWEST FIGURES NAMED IN THE MARKET.

REYNOLDS APPOINTED.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—The appointment of Matt G. Reynolds by the administration has been made by the Republican party in office here from Missouri. They say it is a recognition which has been a long time coming. It is largely due to the desire on the part of prominent politicians here and at home to control matters when it comes to sending delegates to the next presidential convention.

NOBLE'S MOVEMENTS.
MUCH SPECULATION INDULGED REGARDING HIS INTENTIONS FOR THE FUTURE.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—Information has been received here that Secretary Noble will return to the capital Monday next. During his absence Government officials and others have been busy speculating as to what the Secretary's future intentions are, and while there is much talk of his returning to St.
Louis, there are others who believe that it is his purpose to relieve himself of official burden and to take up his abode in the country.
The elegant mansion which the Secretary occupied as a home here is in a state of disrepair and things are packed preparatory to shipment. One attendant said the family would go abroad, while another stated that the Secretary would make a tour of his home in his native land. He made his last visit to the city on Friday, and will leave for his home on Saturday.

WHAT QUAY SAYS.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—Quay today said the Indiana anti-Harrison crowd were acting like "black" fools. He made sport of the idea of an anti-sentiment developing eighteen months before the election, and said it was a "black" joke. He was merely an attempt to force sentiment.

OHIO REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.
WILL MEET AT COLUMBUS ON TUESDAY—SPOKESMAN REPORTS.
CLEVELAND, O., June 13.—The State Republican Convention meets at Columbus Tuesday and preparations have been made for one of the largest gatherings ever held in the state. Secretary Foster, Senator Sherman, McKinley and ex-Gov. Foraker are all expected to be present, and every effort will be made to convey the impression that the party is united and harmonious. McKinley will be the chief attraction, and Governor Burke and Auditor E. W. Rose and Representative J. J. Williams will be recommended without contest, but further than on the platform and kissed each other and let cranks run the convention. I do not believe they can organize now so as to have any influence on the election in Iowa either this fall or in 1892. We Democrats are going to elect Boies Governor and we are going to carry the State. The sentiment is favorable to Cleveland; the people want him for the next President. His silver hair has possibly done him some harm, but the State is for him, in spite of that. The Republicans are going to nominate."

A CANINE GHOST.
How a Carondelet Cabin Became Haunted
—Brutally Assaulted as a Dance.
On the outskirts of this section of the city and a few yards south of the River Des Peres, there is a modest little frame building known by the name of a five-acre lot or field. This little dwelling is at present attracting considerable attention among people who happen to live near by and who pass there often. In other words this little house is haunted. A ghost in shape of a dog parades up and down the house all night long, and the howls and yelps which it emits are frightful. A number of young gentlemen residing in the neighborhood, and who claim there is no such thing as a ghost or spirit, walked out to the house Friday night and determined to satisfy their curiosity whether the stories circulated were true or not. As entrance into the house was effected by a window, the men went in and after looking carefully about concluded to sit and watch this peculiar phantom.
The men consisted of James Lloyd, John Lawler, John O'Neil, Benjamin Gilbreath and Michael O'Connell. After sitting in silence some minutes, the chiming of St. Boniface Church rang out the midnight hour. Every one held their breath and waited anxiously.
Suddenly a dog began to yelp and bark and in a few minutes a white dog came into the room. The men were so much startled that they fled in confusion. The men were so much so that they fled in confusion. The men were so much so that they fled in confusion. The men were so much so that they fled in confusion. The men were so

PRIEST OF MT. TROY

Healing the Sick at the Pittsburgh Church of the Holy Name.

THOUSANDS OF INVALIDS SEEK THE AID OF FATHER MOLLINGER.

The Temple of Worship Designed by a Vast Multitude on the Feast Day of St. Anthony—Pious Rites Which are Supposed to Exert a Powerful Influence.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 13.—There was a great crowd assembled at the church of Father Mollinger to-day, the occasion being the feast day of St. Anthony, from whom the reverend gentleman declares he receives aid, supplementary to his medicinal knowledge, in treating the sick. Last night the vicinity of the church of the Most Holy Name, on Mt. Troy, was thronged with persons who crowded a night passed in the open air as a small price to pay for the relief from all the ills to which the flesh is heir which they hoped to obtain from his miraculous powers. Long before daylight the church yard was thronged, by four o'clock fully 1,000 people were in waiting and shortly after noon this number had more than doubled.

During the progress of the masses and religious services within the church, the sounds of which could be indistinctly heard on the outside, the surging mass of pain-racked patients were upon their knees in the streets, the gutters and the sidewalks, reciting their prayers and invoking the help of God in their particular cases. At the close of the masses Father Mollinger would appear at the church door, and then pass through the kneeling crowd giving to them words of encouragement. The physician priest then announced that he would not to-day treat any cases individually, but called upon all who had received treatment during the past few days to attend 7 o'clock mass. When the doors were closed after the 7 o'clock services Father Mollinger again passed through the crowd, preceded by a uniformed policeman. The father sprinkled with blessed water all within his reach. Men, women and children grasped his hands, his robes and his feet, affectionately kissing them as he passed.

Everyone knelt again as Father Mollinger appeared in the doorway holding aloft a handsome gold processional cross, and with a gold disk in the center. This was something very precious and rare indeed, containing a relic of St. Anthony, a relic of Mary Magdalene and a piece of the cross of Christ. It is stated that these relics are unique and are priceless. Roman Catholics believe that their presence in the church has something to do with the healing power Father Mollinger exercises.

Immediately the priest disappeared there ensued a semi-tumultuous movement in the crowd, and the best efforts of each one was put forward to obtain an advantageous position as possible to the office where the healing

ing was done. This, in the earlier part of the day, was in a room in the Sisters' house at the altar end of the church. Entrance was obtained through three doors, which were kept tightly closed as far as the great bulk of the patients was concerned. The procedure was to fill a couple of rooms, and admit the sick from there to the Father Mollinger's office, so-called.

At 5 o'clock several hundred people were in the building, and among them were not a few who sat about getting in to see Father Mollinger without the tedious necessity of standing in a sweltering crowd of unhealthy people for two or three hours. Some of these jumped in through the windows, and others, it is openly asserted, bought their way in.

The only way to get in there is to buy your way in, said a man to his friend. This man charged that the attendants were open to receive a fee, in consideration of which the donor would get the entrance at once. For this reason the attendants were a good many people being introduced by the door and through the windows, and the entrance was drawn that the usher had been accommodating. No money was seen passed. M. H. Connors of Dayton, N. Y., said he gave one of the attendants a dollar to get him in.

A lady, a resident of Pittsburgh, complained very bitterly that she had been induced to buy three medals at a cost of $1 on the statement made to her by one of the attendants

HERESY AND SCHISM

More Than One Hundred Clerical Disasters Since May 15.

REMARKABLE LIST OF THE BOWS DISTURBING THE CHURCHES.

Reprobation of Venerable Doctrines and Personal Misconduct of the Clergy the Causes of Endless Disasters—Counterfeits and Gamblers Hiding Behind the Cloth.

The most casual reader of the newspapers in these early summer days cannot but notice the large number of disturbances in religious bodies arising out of differences between pastor and people. No section of the country has been free from scandals of this kind, and the difficulties seem to be about equally distributed between all denominations, and besides those troubles which have their root in doctrinal differences or church politics, there have been many cases of clerical guilt which clearly show that the ordinary human motives are not unfelt by the occupants of the pulpits. A hasty glance over the files of the daily papers will bring to view no less than 100 such cases. May is brought about by all sorts of causes ranging from heresy to drunkenness and counterfeiting.

The great heresy of McQuerry, Newton, Briggs and Bridgman are the most conspicuous and in them seems to be the storm center of the religious world. The disaster now blowing over every denomination in the United States. The Rev. Mr. McQuerry is, or was, an Episcopalian minister of a church in Canton, O. He is a thinker and a bold, aggressive speculator. He is a Darwinian, and avows his belief that man, body and soul, was developed by the process known as natural selection, out of some extinct lower form in the animal creation. He published a book called "Evolution of Man and Christianity," in which he took the ground that Genesis was not inspired, and that could not be considered a truthful account of the actual creation of the world and of man. He also denied the virgin birth and the resurrection. Mr. McQuerry was suspended from the ministry last January for six months. At the end of that time he was reinstated. If he adheres to his opinions he will be degraded from the ministry and expelled from the church. The cases of Dr. Hainford and Dr. Newton, both very prominent rectors of New York Episcopal parishes, are still troubling the church. Both these gentlemen have long been known as independent thinkers who, while retaining their connection with the church, have freely avowed liberal opinions which could not be reconciled with the thirty-nine articles without a resort to a new system of hermeneutics.

A MEDDLING WORK. But the Episcopal Church is slow to check liberal opinion, and Bishop Potter was not desirous of a repetition of the McQuerry scandal in his diocese. Indeed nothing would have been said against the two clergymen had it not been for the meddling of a Welsh mountebank from Wales, self-called Father Ignatius. This man is head of an "order" in Wales which claims a superior quality of religion. It is very high indeed, much higher than any of our American church doctrines aspire to. Just what Father Ignatius came to America for nobody seems to know, but he has been in the country some time ago. Bishop Burke sent in his resignation and the bishop declined to accept it. He was well adapted for his new position and threw himself into his work with good results. He was a man of the cloth, and he was a man of the cloth. He was a man of the cloth, and he was a man of the cloth.

A GROUNDED REMOR. A report to the effect that Father Mollinger was going to Rome on orders from the Pope, who desired his services, was indignantly denied by the priest. He had read the report when a Post-Dispatch reporter called upon him. "It is false, untrue, and without any pretext of truth, and the entire article is deliberately misleading. I have not been ordered to Rome. I am going away for a rest, and I do not know where I am going. I have not made up my mind, and when I do go nobody shall know."

Miss Mary Pendergott of Cincinnati who was entirely helpless from rheumatism, and Miss Maggie Brown of Covington, Ky., with spinal trouble, are among the cured. They have made but two visits to the physician-priest. Father Mollinger again announced to-day that he would not leave Troy Hill until he had met all persons who wished to see him.

ALMOST A CALAMITY. A frightful accident narrowly averted this morning. One of the motors under a Pleasant Valley electric car failed while making the long ascent of Troy Hill. There were fifteen people on the car at the time and when the car started down the hill it was in a cab in which two helpless cripples, throwing it cab to one side, a panic ensued. People on the front side and platform were pushed or fell from the car, and several were painfully injured. Finally the car was stopped. The car was stopped. The car was stopped.

ST. LOUIS, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 14, 1891.

After securing assistance he returned and a free fight ensued. Mr. Pollard arrived during the battle, but took no part in it. He was warned to leave town on pain of a coat of tar and feathers.

POLITICS AND THE CLERGY. May 23 Rev. J. K. McClurken of the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Allegheny, Pa., announced his resignation of the Chair of Theology and History in that institution. He complained that seven young ministers of the church had been suspended because they had voted at a political election. He declared that after prolonged study of history he believed that "the ballot box was the place where Christian conviction must be expressed if righteous laws are to send their life giving influences over the Republic." He will join the United Presbyterians. Following this the seven young men were tried for heresy by the Assembly at Pittsburgh and convicted. A wholesale secession split the assembly, twenty-five clergymen following their convicted brothers.

In the course of a sermon the Rev. A. J. Bonnell of the Baptist Church declared that there was nothing positively known of the authorship of the books of the Bible; that he did not believe St. Paul was inspired; that he did not believe Christ, who was a man and a sinner, and while assuring the pastor of his personal esteem, declared that he could not allow his family to listen to such doctrine. Mr. Bonnell immediately resigned his pastorate, but was afterwards persuaded to reconsider. The matter will probably be adjudicated to everybody's satisfaction.

May 23 members of the Third Presbyterian Church, Knoxville, Tenn., presented a complaint to the Southern Presbyterian Assembly in session at Birmingham, that the government of their church was irregular. The Rev. W. H. Harrison, one of the speakers before the Knoxville Presbytery. He failed to do so and was suspended. He was then re-elected by his faction. The synod ordered him to stop preaching, but he defied them and now holds the forth with a part of his congregation.

May 23 Mr. Alvord and Mr. Elwood both wanted new No. 44 in the Congregational Church of Green's Farm, Conn. Mr. Alvord tried to get the new at the auction sale, but the auctioneer would not award it him. He then bought it off the Treasurer for $50. Mr. Elwood then tried to get half of it and squeezed himself into the discomfort of Mr. Alvord's family. An injunction was sued out and Mr. Elwood was enjoined from occupying pew 44.

May 30 the Atlantic District Synod of the German Lutheran Church, sitting at Richmond, Va., declared the action dissonant of the church at Perth Amboy, N. J., in receiving money from the District Synod upon a declaration that it would join the synod and afterward withdrawing without refunding the money.

There is trouble in the Episcopal Church at Metuchen, N. J., between the high and low church parties over the elevation of the elements of the communion, one party holding the high and the other the low. The matter has been referred to the bishop on a charge of violation of the canon. CHARGED WITH TREASON. The Episcopal Church in Georgia is threatened with a schism on the election of a bishop. Dr. Gaylor, who was elected, decried the action as a misapprehension. A rival candidate accused Dr. Gaylor of playing tricks proper enough in a political campaign, but very unbecoming in a convention of churchmen. To clear himself of all suspicion of complicity Dr. Gaylor declines the office.

In Hanover, Ill., the Rev. F. G. Parish has withdrawn from the Methodist ministry in consequence of alleged attentions to a young school teacher while he was in the employ of the school. He declared his innocence of any crime, but did not demand an investigation. He was allowed to withdraw.

The Rev. G. M. Dawson, pastor of the Twentieth Street Methodist Episcopal Church in Wilmington, N. Y., has been dismissed by his congregation. He is charged by a number of witnesses with lying, forgery, embezzlement and other crimes. He asked for letters of recommendation to other congregations, but when his people recovered their senses they refused to issue them. This case is peculiar. Dawson says he has a son whom he unfortunately named George K., and this son, who was a father's initials, is the guilty one. The son of the son is visited upon the father. He avers that he has been driven all over the country by just such troubles, and is now well settled in a parish that the son turns up and plays pranks with the old man's initials. Nobody has seen the son, however, and his defense is considered insufficient.

Mr. Ames is or was superintendent of the Sunday-school of the First Baptist Church of Hackensack, N. J. He was accused of unbecomingly coming with members of the choir. He was voted out at a meeting of the board of officers. Pastor Daniels leading the fight against him. Last Sunday when Miss Laura Slagle, the organist, was to church school another in her place. She charged Pastor Daniels with spite and led a revolt of the Sunday-school teachers. A number of them resigned on the ground that they could not serve under a man who, while professing to be a saint, has in every action of a devil.

Rev. J. Nelson, wts. pastor of the First Baptist Church, Malden, Mass., resigned because his church did not support him. His salary was $4,000 a year, and he was a member of the church. He was described as very "sporty."

The Rev. John W. Lewis, D. D., was found guilty by the Presbytery of San Francisco of appropriating to his own use $500 trust funds and rendering false statements, touching other financial matters. He was let off with an admonition.

Farmer J. J. Dukes, a member of the Hard-shell Baptist Church of America, Ga., put a lightning rod on his new $50,000 house. This indicated lack of confidence in the Lord, and he is now on trial for his want of faith. Five years ago the Rev. C. H. Gleason, then a widower, married Pamela Clark, a Christian scientist. He is now suing for divorce, alleging infidelity and intolerable cruelty. He is six feet tall, white skin, a little woman who could hardly be called a woman. She is fighting the case desperately and says she will "make it hot" for him. The court allowed her $5 per month to defend herself. Dr. H. S. Fumery, named as co-respondent, says Gleason is a veritable Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

several weeks but he neither appeals nor took it into his own hands. He proposed, but nothing more. Once he caught her in the house together. He made a mistake and the negro knocked him down. Zimmerman's shop friends once planned to help the woman and her lover, but he said that no violence be attempted, as he did not want his disgrace to become notorious. Zimmerman will follow the woman and her children, but will have nothing more to do with her.

The above Carriages are cut down to cost, and if you want a carriage you never will have another chance like this. SEE DISPLAY IN WINDOW.

BAILEY'S COLUMN. CHAS. H. BAILEY, Real Estate.

304 N. 7th St.
Near the Archbishop's
New residence, on the same block, Lindell av., a double house with splendid lot and stable. To any one seeking a nice home in a very desirable residence quarter, I will be pleased to give full particulars.

Finest Building Lot on Pine
North side, highest ground between Taylor and Lay, 100x150, lot covered with magnifi- cent forest trees.

322 Feet on Forest Park,
From Duncan to Barnes on King's highway, near the new main grand entrance to the park; without doubt this is offered at the greatest bargain in the park district.

Franklin Av. Business Prop- erty
Not much on the market, but I offer a very desirable place between 14th and 18th sts. improved and rented, with lots 100x150; $12,000 secures it. Can arrange terms. This is on the market for quick sale.

120 Acres on the Park.
On the skinner road, slope for subdivision into small tracts of 5, 10 or 20 acres. A big chance.

An Easton Av. Lot
Between 28th and 29th, north side; 100x150; positive orders to sell this lot, and a bargain can be had on terms to suit.

The Corner of Grand Av.
And Franklin, 100x170, with a substantial double brick house on the lot, will be a great corner soon for a hotel or fine apartment house, and it can be had cheap now.

Only a Few Lots
In Vandeventer place left on the market, I can offer 140 feet at special inducement for immediate sale.

Central Improved Property
On 6th st., west side, north of Locust st., No. 49, a four-story stone-front building, under lease to Heidebrand-Benelst, satisfactory; no more desirable property in the market.

A Corner 115x135.
Seventh and Elm; improved and rented, has a great future.

Rice Block on Lindell.
From Taylor to Lay, street building lots in St. Louis; 25 ft. deep to alley; all improvements made.

The Mo. R. R. Co.
Will sell that very desirable corner on Grand and Manchester rd., 200x250. A great big bargain can be had by some one.

Speaking of Bargains
I can offer one that's worthy attention—300 Lacade av.—the former house of Mr. Dexter Tiffany, lot 60x150, and a fine house that cost about $25,000. This property on any kind of accommodating terms can be had at about 50 cents on the dollar.

Near Bates and Goodfellow
I have about 300 feet; non-resident; will give a big bargain sure.

In That New Territory.
King's highway and Bell av., a new modern Queen Anne; nicely arranged; well-built; 9 rooms; only one square from Lindell Electric; site high up and fronts south. The number is 151 Bell av.; a little over $5,000 buys all this. Quick.

Finney Avenue.
174—Nearly new 9-room house, handsomely decorated, furnace, screens, etc., all complete; lot 125x150.

CREEDS ARE CRUMBLING! CHAINED TO A TOMBSTONE

Men must now think! Men who are Of Prejudice, False Conservatism and Old Fogyism, are now being left in the rear.

Has taken place in EAST ST. LOUIS in the last few years. A new administration, new credit. Millions have been spent in improvement—street pavements, magnificent schools, mammoth new factories, one of whose plants entirely covers fifteen acres and which will employ 1500 men. These things are worth considering.

Price her property, look for a vacant residence or store. Hun- dreds are doing so and profiting by it.

J. T. McCASLAND, 822 OLIVE ST.

TRIUMPH OF EAST ST. LOUIS

She is growing daily in favor with the business men of St. Louis, and a career of constantly increasing prosperity is assured. The number of her manufacturing industries are on the increase. A Glass Works, to be operated by St. Louis capital, imitates the ex- ample of the Malleable Iron Works and locates in East St. Louis.

Slowly but surely St. Louis is being converted and convinced. All eyes are now directed to the town across the river; soon all hands will be engaged in the long-delayed work of development.

MADISON,
The City of St. Louis merchants, is receiving a large share of the attention directed to the East Side. A visit to MADISON will be

VANDEVENTER AVENUE OPENING.
Big Fight to Be Made Over the Proposed Opening of the Street.
Councilman James talks of fighting the bill for the opening of Vandeventer avenue between Manchester road and Chouteau avenue, claiming that the expense to the city will be greater than the value of the opening after it is made. A lumber yard must be cut down and a pork house removed and the total cost to the city, after the damage to property owners are paid, will be $4,000, amount to $75,000, although the distance is only two blocks. The Board of Public Improvements drafted the bill and sent it to the Municipal Assembly, but the opponents of it claim that the property owners were never given a hearing in the matter. The South side people have been clamoring for years for a single-lane route to the Fair Grounds and Bagley Hall park, and thought they were going to get it when this bill was introduced, as the Lindell Highway Co. have promised to extend their Vandeventer avenue line so as to connect with their Chouteau avenue line as soon as the contemplated opening of Vandeventer avenue is made, and to carry passengers over both roads for one fare. The Council's Committee on Public Improvements is to have a meeting for the purpose of hearing both sides of the question next Tuesday afternoon.

WORLD are clearing sale prices knocked in the head. Come and see this week.

SAND COMPANIES IN COURT.
Result of an Attempt to Fight the Sand Trust.
The new Missouri Sand Co. filed a suit in the United States Circuit Court yesterday against the Union Sand Co. This is the result of the war which began about two weeks ago, when the Union Sand Co. began to fight the trust on prices of sand which is taken from the river in front of the city. The plaintiff company, by W. R. Craft, its President, states that Henry Schultz, a citizen of Milwaukee, Wis., patented a sand pump and screen in March, 1878. It was a method raising sand from the bed of the river by a strong suction and carrying it in pipes to a barge over which it poured, the water running off, leaving the sand on the barge. Mr. Craft says he bought the rights to use the machinery in territory of fifty miles radius from the St. Louis Court-house in May, 1880, and in January, 1880, sold it to the new Missouri Sand Co., of which he is President. He now claims that the Union Sand Co. has machinery and apparatus in operation on the river, which is an infringement on the screen and suction machinery he bought the rights of, and he wants a restraining order and damages.

See the baby laugh and cry.
Crying I want some of Strauss' photos, too.

He says of his own campaign from Chattanooga to Savannah and Raleigh, that "in its strategy, in its logistics, in its grand and minor tactics, it has added new lustre to the old science of war." All his movements "were on a grand scale, strictly in conformity with the lessons of the great masters and illustrate every branch of the science of war as defined by Soudy—strategy, science of war, tactics, grand tactics, logistics, grand tactics, and engineering."
